ASK TO BE RELEASED

Kine Senators Desire to Be Freed
From Promise.

REBUKE OF LANHAM.

Reminds the Petitioners That They Were Called Together to Correct an Error and Request Is Refused.

Austin, April 3.—Quite a sensational turn was taken Tuesday in the tangle on the construction of section 120 of the election bill where senators who favor a blanket primary addressed a letter to Governor Lanham asking to be released from the promise made to him and that they wish to vote as they see fit on the election law. The letter is signed by Senators Faulk, Harper, Griggs, Chambers, Glasscock, Beatty, J. W. Terrell, Grinnan and Stokes.

In his reply the governor severely rebukes the legislature for injecting the blanket primary in the bill.

Following is the text of the letter addressed to the governor:

"Senate Chamber, Austin, Tex., April 3, 1906.—Governor S. W. T. Lanham, Austin, Tex.: Dear Sir—We are as anxious as yourself or any one else to restore section 120 of the election law as it passed the last legislature with an amendment providing that any candidate for state or district office receiving a majority of the votes in the primary election shall be declared the nominee. This, in our opinion, perfects the law and responds to the demands of the people. Many members on the floor of the senate who voted against this amendment said that they did so on account of a promise, either expressed or implied, made to you to only restore section 120 at this session as it passed the last legislature, but also stated that they favored blanket primary election law, and that their constituents wanted it. In view of this situation, and the further fact that this called session will likely adjourn without doing anything, we therefore respectfully ask you to release said members of the senate from the aforesaid promise, so that they may be free and untrammeled to act in this subject. We do not know whether you favor the proposed amendment; neither do we know whether or not said members desire to be released from said promise to you, but in our opinion the gravity of the situation demands that you indicate to them by special message or otherwise your willingness to absolve them therefrom.

"The senate has passed the resolution to adjourn sine die at 12 o'clock today, and the two houses are locked on the issue of a blanket primary election law, and we believe that the solution of this matter is on the lines indicated above, and that if this course is taken, section 120 will be restored intact, with the aforesaid amendment added, which strengthens and perfects the law. We have been in session only a few days, and we do not believe that we should adjourn without exhausting every available means at command to accomplish the purpose of this called session, which we do not think has been done. We do not intend to be officious or go beyond the bounds of propriety, but we are actuated solely by a sense of duty and to meet the unusual conditions that confront us."

In his reply the governor says: "Dear Sirs: I have received your letter of this date in which you request me to relieve members of the senate from the promise, either expressed or implied, to only restore section 120 at this session, as it passed the legislature. In reply, I beg to advise you that I have received no request from any member of either house I have received no request from any member of either house except yourselves for such release. I convened this special session for the specific purpose mentioned in the call and as further explained in my message to the legislature. The call was made upon the initiative of those members of the legislature who appeared to desire a special session for the sole purpose of so correcting said section 120 as to make it conform to the meaning and language in which it was originally passed. I frankly state to you that no suggestion was made to me in reference to any other matter than such correction by any members of the legislature who asked or agreed to the special session, until after the call was made. I would not have convened this special session had I believed that other matters than that embraced in the call and my message were to be considered. I do not feel authorized to release any gentlemen from any promise either made to me or to his fellow members. I must therefore respectfully decline to comply with your request.

"I have the honor to be, very respectfully, your obedient servant,
"S. W. T. LANHAM,
"Governor."

United States Supreme Court Decides For Railroad.

AGAINST TEXAS LAW

Opinion Holds That Cattle Shipping
Enactment Transcends the Police
Power of the State and Is Too Arbitrary.

Washington, April 3.—In an opinion by Justice Brown, the supreme court of the United States Monday decided the case of the Houston and Texas Central Railroad company vs. J. A. Mayes in favor of the company. The case involved a claim made by Mayes against the railroad company on account of failure of the road to promptly supply cars for the shipment of cattle, and brought into question the validity of the Texas state law under which the claim arose.

Mayes in 1903 lived in Llano county, Texas, and engaged seventeen cars for the transportation of 625 head of cattle to Red Rock, Okla., the agreement being that the cars were to be furnished April 20 of that year. The cattle were driven into the stockyards on the morning of that day, but the cars for their shipment did not arrive until the afternoon of the next day. Mayes made a claim for damages on account of weight and other injuries to his cattle to the extent of $3 per head, or $1,875, and also in accordance with the state law for $425 as a penalty under his contract with the railroad company. The case was begun in the district court of Llano county, which awarded him the full amount of the penalty and $500 damages. The supreme court for the Third judicial district of Texas affirmed this decision, and the railroad brought the case to the supreme court on a writ of error, setting up the unconstitutionality of the law providing a penalty of $25 a day on each car ordered as in the case.

Justice Brown's opinion sustained this contention on the ground that the law transcends the police power of the state and encroaches on the power of the national government to control state commerce. He said that the law takes no account of the possibility of accident, and is too arbitrary. The chief justice and Justices Harlan and McKenna dissented.

AGREED TO ADJOURN.

Senate Also Passes Bill to Pay Members of Legislature.

ADDRESS LEGISLATURE.

Former Governor Herrick and Sayers and Mr. Finney Speak.

Austin, April 3.—Former Governor Herrick of Ohio and President Finney of the Missouri, Kansas and Texas railway visited the legislature Tuesday. Both made brief speeches. Ex-Governor Sayers also spoke.

DEBATE LIVELY.

Came Up Over Discharge of Conference Committee.

Austin, April 3.—In the senate Tuesday there was a lively debate over the discharge of senate free conference committee on election bill. Quite a change came over the minority, as it was the minority that favored discharging the committee, but their object was to have another free conference committee appointed. The matter was brought up by Senator Harper, who moved that the committee be discharged.

Senator Hanger opposed the motion, as he said it was out of order, as it was not necessary, as the committee recommended nothing. Further, it was for the house to say if the committee shall be discharged.

Senator McKamy, who is opposed to a blanket primary amendment, said he could see no use in discharging the committee, as it would mean a request for the appointment of another.

Senator Looney said: "Why go on with this strife? Let us adjourn and go home as there seems to be no hope of the house and senate getting together."

After further debate the senate refused to discharge the committee by a vote of 16 to 10. Sixteen senators who voted against discharging committee, contended that it was not necessary, and are in favor of merely correcting the error in the election bill.

The report of the investigating committee appointed to investigate state officials came up for adoption. The report was discussed at length without action.

EVANS EXPIRES.

Former Merchant and Railroad Director Passes Away at New York.

New York, April 3.—Thomas W. Evans, eighty-three years old, died at his home here of pneumonia. He is survived by a son and daughter, residents of this city, and one daughter living in Nashville, Tenn.

Mr. Evans was born in Henderson, N. C. He began his business career as a dry goods merchant, coming to this city at the close of the civil war. He was a partner in Evans, Jordan & Co., and Evans, Peete & Co., dry goods concerns of this city.

He was interested in railroading, having acted as a director in the Nashville and Chattanooga, the Louisville and Nashville, and the Mobile and Ohio railroads. He was also a director in the United States Lloyds company and at one time a member of the Chamber of Commerce in this city.

Mr. Evans retired from active business life several years ago.

ONLY ONE CHANGE.

With Single Exception, Same Board Will Manage Road.

Salt Lake City, April 3.—The National Railroad Company of Mexico, which operates 900 miles of railway in the southern republic, its main line extending from Laredo, Tex., to the City of Mexico, held its annual meeting here Monday. Present at the meeting, voting shares of the stock, were President E. N. Brown of the City of Mexico, E. E. Bashford of New York, assistant secretary, and local representatives of the Harriman interests. The former board of directors was re-elected, with the exception of that of Robert Nunez of the City of Mexico, who succeeds J. G. Metcalf of New York.

WIRE FENCE CHARGED.

Electric Current of One Thousand Volts Keeps Intruders Out.

Trenton, Mo., April 3.—A wire fence, which is charged with an electric current of 1,000 volts entirely surrounds the works of the Trenton Mining company as a precaution against the execution of threats which, it is alleged, have secretly been made to destroy the property of the company.

The Trenton mine is a co-operative organization, all the present workers being stockholders in a small way. No trouble is expected from the employees of the mine, but it is reported threats have come from outsiders.

Dr. Butler reports that the Sunday school "Brick Book" collections now amount to about $100.00. The book goes to Cottonwood Saturday and to Harvey Sunday, and will later be sent over South Texas. This novel enterprise is destined to not only raise a fine fund for the Texas Woman's College but to widely advertise this worthy and growing institution by enlisting the personal interest of thousands of Sunday school scholars, whose names will be enrolled. This list, especially the girl's names, will be valuable for increasing the attendance of the school from year to year.

A Piece For His Dog.

Rossini lived before the day of special plead for the dog, but he was sufficiently in advance of his time to recognize the equality if not the superiority of his own favorite beast. The Gentleman's Magazine says that the late Sir Arthur Sullivan made Rossini's acquaintance in Paris. One morning, when Sullivan called to see him, he found the composer trying over a piece of music.

"What is that?" asked Sullivan.

"It's my dog's birthday," Rossini replied gravely, "and I write a little piece for him every year."

NOT A PATENT MEDICINE

Hyomei a Scientific Treatment for Cataract by Breathing Medicated Air.

Ever since Hyomei has been known, its formula has been given to physicians, druggists, and, in fact, to all intelligent people who could appreciate the true merit of the combination of healing gums, oils, and balsams, of which it is composed.

Many leading physicians endorse Hyomei and prescribe it for cataract troubles. In fact, quite a few of them use it themselves to break up a cold and prevent pneumonia. They regard it as a natural, yet scientific way of curing cataract.

Breathed through the pocket inhaler that comes with every outfit, Hyomei destroys all catarrhal germs in the air-passages of the throat and nose, soothes and heals the irritated mucous membrane and effectually drives from the system all traces of catarrhal poison.

No one should confound Hyomei with the patent medicines that are advertised as catarrhal cures. It is as superior to them all as the diamond is more valuable than the glass.

The complete Hyomei outfit, consisting of a neat pocket inhaler, a medicine dropper, and a bottle of Hyomei costs but $1, and extra bottles can be obtained for 50c, making it the most economical method of curing catarrh, as well as the most reliable.

E. J. Jenkins has sold a great many Hyomei outfits and has seen such remarkable results from its use that he sells it under an absolute guarantee that it costs nothing unless it cures.

WAGNER & BRANDON'S MILLINERY OPENING.

The formal Spring Millinery Opening of Wagner & Brandon's parlors began yesterday and continues through today. For many years this popular house has kept abreast of the times with the latest creations in millinery, employing the most accomplished artists in this line, and overlooking nothing to make the department complete and perfect, supplying styles and values equal to the larger cities of the State.

This season proves no exception to the rule, and the crowds of ladies who called yesterday were infinitely pleased with the beauty, excellence and extent of the display. Miss Williamson and several assistants were kept busy and made large sales, the opening being an unusually successful one.

This season's offerings are exceptionally beautiful and pleasing. Fantastic shapes are not in evidence and the prevailing shades are soft and harmonious with springtime loveliness. Rose shades from V rose to crushed mulberry predominate. Grays are again good. Teal and leather shades are combined with Milan and Tuscan natural colored straw. Sailors in dress and tailored hats are exceedingly popular. The new cupid shape will also be much worn. The Fifth Avenue shape in the tailored hat is a swell creation and much admired. The Leghorn with leather shades and blue trimmings, pink roses and heliotrope is a favorite. Black hats in hair braids and Leghorns with colored flowers are pretty and popular. The season's trimmings are full and light, employing maline, chiffon and flowers.

The display is too elaborate for description in detail, and can only be appreciated when seen by the devotee.

Without Warning a Tractable Beast Kills His Trainer.

A distinct type of a zoo rogue is the beast that goes wrong owing to accidental temptation, like Shaggy, an exceedingly intelligent, tractable Rocky mountain grizzly who reverted to savagery and turned man killer in a twinkling owing to the unfortunate misstep and fall of his trainer.

Shaggy was a big, handsome, gray old fellow, with a jungle thick coat and a lumbering, awkward gait and a funny twinkle that made him particularly adaptable for his part of clown in a remarkably trained group of fourteen bears. He had come under the hands of his teacher when but a helpless cub, had never lost his liking for caresses and, although the mightiest beast in the collection, was least suspected of being dangerous. Once when a striped hyena hung to the ankle of his friend he had run to the rescue, had cut loose right and left with his ponderous fore-paws and had bitten and torn and mangled the ugly beast to death before he could be beaten off. Among his accomplishments were that of turning admirably grotesque somersaults and the more difficult feat of balancing himself on his hind legs on a three foot wooden sphere.

Not a scratch or a scar had his trainer to show for the years of work he had put in with the bear, and yet, without an instant's warning, this same beast attacked and injured his master so that when rescued he was semidemented and so dreadfully cut and lacerated that the surgeons decided it useless to try to save his life.—McClure's Magazine.

ADOPTING A BABY.

Methods of the Society In Charge of the Tots in New York.

It isn't easy to get a baby for adoption from the organization which has charge of them in New York. On receipt of the application a blank is sent back containing some twenty printed questions, to be filled out by the would-be parents and a request for three references. If the answers are satisfactory, further blanks go to the persons referred to, asking information on the applicant's character and circumstances, and reliable citizens of the neighborhood are privately consulted. Then the agent comes and inspects the family. If the home seems a good one, a baby as near the requirements as possible is sought. There is even an attempt to select a suitable temperament—a placid baby for a nervous woman or one who is not bored by attentions for the demonstrative. The visiting agent has to be something of a psychologist. Every one calls for curly hair of course, and blue eyes are much in demand, but the new mother generally forgets all her specifications when she is confronted with the living candidate. The baby is taken to the home by the agent, who leaves written directions about food and care and comes back twice a year to note progress.

Frequent reports are encouraged, and even after the child is legally adopted the society tries to keep in touch with it. The motive for this is of course scientific as well as humane.—Juliet Wilber Tompkins in Everybody's Magazine.

Made in New York

Men's fashions originate in New York City; no one disputes this statement.

Manufacturing tailors whose shops are remote from the source of inspiration rarely reflect the prevailing styles.

Alfred Benjamin & Co. are the most important manufacturing tailors in New York—their shops are a block from Broadway—a minute's walk from Fifth Avenue.

Their local agent can show you the correct clothes for business, outing or dress wear in this season's accepted fashions.

HARMONY PREVAILS.

Only One Colliery Reported as Working Full Handed Monday.

New York, April 3.—District leaders of union miners report utmost harmony prevails. Mitchell has headquarters at the Ashland House.

The leaders report that the only colliery working full handed is the People's Coal company's Oxford plant, in the northern field, which is run almost exclusively by non-union men. The washeries that were put in operation employ the district leaders say, only a small number of men, and they are not well organized.

The presidents of the anthracite coal carrying roads devoted attention to the act of retail coal dealers in New York, Philadelphia and other cities in raising the price of domestic sizes of coal to the consumer. They have received reports that many retailers have advanced prices anywhere from 25 cents to $1 a ton. The operators some days ago warned the dealers that if they continue the practice their supply of coal will be cut off, and fuel will be given to only those dealers who rigidly maintain the regular prices.

The practice of advancing prices, however, became so widespread that the operators issued a statement to the public that the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroad is operating six washeries, Erie five washeries, Ontario and Western two washeries, Delaware and Hudson one washery and the People's Coal company one breaker; that a large quantity of coal is held in storage, and that the price f. o. b. and "alongside" is exactly the same now as it has been for months past.

CALLED ON PALMA.

Mrs. Roosevelt and Children Visitors to Cuban President.

Havana, April 3.—Mrs. Roosevelt and her children called on President Palma Monday. Minister Morgan, Secretary Sleeper and Consul

MICHELL HOPEFUL.

Denied All Rumors of Concessions as Mere Speculations.

New York, April 3.—Although nothing occurred to change the situation, there was general expectation Tuesday morning that the conference between the sub committees of anthracite operators and miners, to be held in the Jersey Central building, would bear fruit. There was a strong optimistic feeling among representatives of the miners that something would happen to greatly relieve the situation. President Mitchell, during the forenoon said there was no change in the situation so far as the miners are concerned. The men still stand firm for what they have asked, and he felt confident that the operators would not continue to maintain the attitude they have assumed up to the present time. Mr. Mitchell denied all rumors of concessions to be made by him. All reports of that character, he said, were mere speculation. Notwithstanding Mitchell's firm stand, it is now considered quite likely the Shamokin scale committee would rather make concessions than declare a strike at this time.

The subcommittee of miners, which is made up of District Presidents Nicholls and Fahey and District Secretaries Dempsey, Gallagher and Hartley, with President Mitchell as chairman, had a brief meeting at headquarters at the Ashland House prior to the conference with operators. What took place at this gathering was not made public, but it is understood the committee reviewed developments in connection with suspension of mining which took place throughout the hard coal fields. Subcommittee members all expressed themselves satisfied with the situation; said they were confident that there would be no break in the ranks of the miners. Members of the Shamokin scale committee, who number 366, began arriving here during the forenoon. It had been planned to hold a meeting of this committee Tuesday night to receive reports from the subcommittee of seven.

President Mitchell received a large number of telegrams from various bituminous districts of the Union. He informed a reporter for the Associated Press that affairs in the soft coal sections were working themselves out just as he had expected they would. All this information he said, was of a favorable character. Thousands of men have returned to mines at increased pay and he expected to soon hear that many more soft coal companies have agreed to the 1903 scale.

President Baer of the Reading company arrived here from Philadelphia shortly after 10 o'clock and immediately went into conference with officials of other coal carrying roads.

FAIRCHILD'S REMEDY.

Must Stop the Use of Steam and Electricity to Do So.

Berkley, Cal., April 3.—Former Secretary of the Treasury Charles Stebbins Fairchild informed the College Commerce club, in an informal address, that the only action he could suggest to stop the concentration of power in the hands of a limited number of financiers is to stop the use of steam and electricity.

"In my opinion," said Mr. Fairchild, who was in President Cleveland's first cabinet, and who is a banker of Reno, Nev., "the so-called concentration of power in industrial and financial world today is due almost entirely to improvements in transportation methods. The foundation of these improvements is in the use of electricity and steam. If we want to do away with concentration, then I am afraid we will have to dispense with electricity and steam."

HARRIMAN RETIRES.

Finance Committee of Illinois Central Railroad Is Abolished.

New York, April 3.—Edward H. Harriman is no longer chairman of the finance committee of the Illinois Central Railroad company, and that committee has been abolished, according to a statement issued Monday afternoon at the offices of the company.

The chairman of a new committee on law and finance is Walter Lutgten of the firm of August Belmont & Co. The official statement claimed that the committees of the board of directors of the road have never been executive, but advisory or recommendatory.

NOT COMMON CARRIERS.

This is the Contention of the Northern Public Terminal Company.

Portland, Ore., April 3.—The demurer to the answer of Northern Pacific Terminal company in the case wherein the government is seeking to collect penalty for alleged violation of safety appliance law was sustained by Judge Wolverton in Federal court. Suits under this law were recently brought against the Southern Pacific, Oregon Railroad and Navigation company, Northern Pacific and Northern Pacific Terminal company. The latter is the first contest case, and having lost the first point now be given time to file another before final action would be taken. In the answer filed the company contended it was not a common carrier.

Failed to Open.

Peoria, Ill., April 3.—The private bank of Teis, Smith & Co. at Pekin failed to open for business Monday, having assigned to U. J. Albertson as trustee.

B'Nai B'Rith.

Norfolk, Va., April 3.—Grand Lodge of Improved Order of B'Nai B'Rith elected N. S. Meyers of Washington president. Charleston, S. C., is next meeting place.

Voting Lively From Start.

Milwaukee, April 3.—Voting here was lively from the start.

PERSONAL LIABILITY BILL.

Measure Favored by Railroad Employees Adopted by House.

Washington, April 3.—Chief among the measures passed by the house Monday was the so-called "personal liability bill," which has been favored by the army of railway employees throughout the country, which had practically a unanimous report from the committee. Members of the house showed great interest in the measure, and had a division been called for, the bill would have had an almost unanimous vote.

Another measure changing existing laws which excited a filibuster opposition was the bill permitting the fortification of sweet wines and levying a tax of 3 cents a gallon on all wines thus fortified.

A number of bills were passed under suspension of the rules.

The pension appropriation bill was sent to conference with Messrs. Gardner of Michigan, Brownlow of Tennessee and Sullivan of Massachusetts as conferees.

The naval academy hazing bill conference report was adopted.

Other bills passed were: To make the law governing the appointment of cadets at Annapolis conform to that of appointments to West Point; ratifying and confirming the acts of the legislative assembly of the territory of Oklahoma, passed in 1905, relating to an insane asylum for at Fort Supply; providing for a recorder of deeds in the Osage Indian reservation; a bill to incorporate the National Education Association of the United States.

The bill to extend the irrigation act to the state of Texas was taken up on motion of Mr. Smith of Texas. On agreement, the bill went over as unfinished business, two hours to be devoted to its consideration.

AMENDMENT OFFERED.

Fulton of Oregon Makes Legal Argument For Rate Bill.

Washington, April 3.—The amendment of the house railroad bill, agreed upon the the White House Saturday by friends of the bill, providing for a limited review of the orders of the interstate commerce commission, was offered in the senate Monday by Mr. Long of Kansas, but he was unable to get the floor to make a speech on the bill.

The principal speech was made by Mr. Fulton of Oregon, who spoke for the bill. It was a legal argument, and bore upon the constitutional questions involved in the legislation, and interruptions were so frequent that the speech amounted to a debate on law points, where the speaker divided the time with a majority of the lawyers of the senate.

Mr. Nelson of Minnesota and Mr. Heyburn of Idaho made brief speeches on the bill.

CLAYPOOL CONFESSES.

Put Dynamite Under Engine Because Five Men Were Discharged.

Cleveland, April 3.—The Leader says: Enough dynamite was found under a hoisting engine in the Taylor Arcade in Euclid avenue to wreck that building, as well as half a dozen others which cluster about it. Henry Claypool, a night watchman, confessed to detectives that he placed it where it was found because five of his fellow watchmen had been discharged.

DAVIS' MAJORITY.

Result Will Be Officially Declared at Democratic Convention.

Little Rock, April 3.—Governor Jefferson Davis has 9,998 majority over Senator James H. Berry for the Democratic nomination for United States senator, according to the returns from last Wednesday's primary, as compiled Monday. The result will not be officially declared until the Democratic state convention meets in Hot Springs June 6.

SEVERAL SIGN.

Those Companies Doing So Represent Thirty Million Tons of Coal.

Pittsburg, April 3.—Following soft coal companies, according to Francis L. Robbins of the Pittsburg Coal company, who has also done so, have signed the scale of 1903: The Monongahela River Consolidated Coal and Coke, The Ellsworth Coal, The People's Coal, The Marine Coal, The Steen Coal, The Vesta Coal, The Dilworth Coal, Mansfield Coal and Coke.

These companies represent 30,000,000 tons, or over three-quarters of the coal mines in the Pittsburg district.

Embry Exonerated.

Washington, April 3.—A special agent who went to Oklahoma to investigate charges against John Embry, who was appointed United States attorney from that territory, declares the charges are unfounded. Speed, whom he was appointed to succeed, has submitted a statement to the department of justice in vindication of himself.
